

The Wind and the Waves

(Mark 4:35)

1 D D E (4x) A C

5 D A C D

That day when eve - ning came — he said to his dis -

10 A C

ci ples, "Let us go o - ver to the o - ther side —."

13 D A

Leav - ing the crowd be - hind — they took him a - long —

16 C D

just as he was — in the boat. There were al - so o -

19 Amin D

ther boats with him —

21 Amin D G

A fu - ri - ous squall — came up, and the waves —

24 Amin D

broke o - ver the boat —, so that it was near - ly swamped —

27 G D D E (4x)

31 A C D

Je - sus was in the stern — sleep - ing on a cush - ion.

34 A C D

The dis - ci - ples woke — him and said to him — ,

38 Amin D Amin D

"Teach - er don't you care if we drown — ?

43 Amin D G

Teach - er don't you care — if we drown — — — ?"

46 Bmin

He got up — , re - buked the wind — and said to the waves —

49 C

"Qui - et! Be — — — — —

54 G C

still! Qui - et!

59 G

Be — — — — — still — — — — — ! Then the

63 Cmin G

wind died down — and it was com - plete - ly calm — .

66 Cmin G

70 Emin C

He said to his dis - ci - ples, "Why are you so a - fraid?"

73 D

Do you still — have no faith —?"

76 C

They were ter - ri - fied and asked — each o - ther,

78 D

"Who is this — ?

80 C

E - ven the wind and the waves —,

82

e - ven the wind and the waves —,

84 G

e - ven the wind and the waves — o - bey him — !"